THOMAS' DOUBLE TRIUMPH.

TAKES COLIN STAKES WITH POLLS WHILE WINNING AGAIN AT OAKLAND.

Rocky O'Brien Proves a Failure and Sir Ashton Runs Second-Much Racing Arranged for the Northwest.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 3.—R. L. Thomas' stable was the sensational feature of today's racing, for immediately following the victory of his Voter cell. Polls, in the Colin Stakes, it was announced amid vociferous applianse in the betting ring that Flying Squirrer had won the Gebhard Stakes at Oakland.

The Colin Stakes, at five furlongs, brought a field of six starters to the post—Surgezt. Polls and J. H. Barr being added at the last moment. To a good start Rocky O'Brien set out to make the pace, closely followed by Sir Ashton. Soon after passing the far turn Donau, which had been running third, was knocked clear out of the running, Rocky O'Brien led to and in the stretch by a short margin, but showed signs of distress when an eighth out, but showed signs of distress when an eighth out, where Sir Ashton took the lead and seemed the winner. but when a sixteenth out Polls, which had been running third, so the content of the color of the content of the post of the post of the color of the post of the last, came triough and the closing strides and won drawing away. Sir Ashton was an easy second over Rocky O'Erien.

Polls ran a remarkable race and was easily the best of those pitted against him.

One of the largest crowds of the season was present, due to the pleasant weather. Only nine teen books answered the roll call.

The Victoria Jockey Club of Victoria. B. C., will hold a sixty-day meeting beginning June 5. R. F. Leighton has been selected as general manager, presiding judge, Frank Skinner, and Sam McGibben, clerk of the scales and associate judge. Ed Dukewill do the starting. The betting ring will be open to all reputable bookmakers. The meeting at the new track at Vancouver will follow the Victoria meeting and will continue forty days.

The Hon. Joseph L. Riinock, member of congress and a large stockholder in the Latonia Jockey Club arrived last night. He is here on business connected with theatrical enterprises. Rhinock declared today that racing at Latonia will be conducted with the books and slates as formerly.

COLONEL CLAY THINKS LAW WILL STAND

Veteran Breeder's Reasons for Believing That the Kentucky Racing Commission Is Secure.

Kentucky Racing Commission Is Secure.

Lexington, Ky., April 3.—Colonel E. F. Claymaster of the Runnymede Stud, vice-chairman of the State Racing Commission and one of the oldest preeders of thoroughbred horses in Kentucky, is confident that the forthcoming decision of the Court of Appeals will be to the favor of the State Racing Commission; that it will be so pronouncedly so as to settle for all time doubt and controversy over the constitutionality of the law under which it was rerated and that following this decision will come better management of the racing grounds in this state as a result of co-operation rather than an tagonism from certain of the track owners.

"Many of the best lawyers and Jurists in the State wild the commission will come be the law under which our commission when opinion that the law under lact." Said Colonel Clay "Those learned judges, Lurton Severens and Cochran, sitting in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Cincinnati in 1996, were of the same opinion when they decided the case brought against us by the Douglas Park Jockey Club. We won that case and we will win this one, Judge Harbeson holds that the creation of the commission was through class legislation and is therefore unconstitutional. He went outside of the record for a point upon which to hand that decision. He look this point on the ground of official information as he had a perfect right to do, but it happens that the official information was misinformation. He conduct, management and rules governing trotting and running races and that in exempting the former from the control of the commission the legislature created class legislation. There is so wide a difference in the conduct and rules covering the two branches of the sport that a commission of men versed in matters of the running turf would not be competent to make rules and regulations for trotting tracks, in his decision Judge Harbeson further declares that here at Lexington trotting meetings are held over the same track used for the running meetings. #### CLOISTERESS DISTINGUISHES HERSELF.

Lacksonville, Fla., April 3.—The banner crowd of the meeting turned out at Moncreif Park this afternoon. It packed the grandstand and even standing from was at a premium.

A splendid card was provided, the feature of which was a five-furlongs handicap, in which the pick of the sprinting division racing here went to the toost. The race proved a stirring contest and the result a surprise, the winner turning up in Cloisteress, which was but little fancied by the landicappers. Cloisteress surprised all, however, by showing her best performance of the winter. Out the leaders of the winter to the leaders of the winter of the pick of the strict of the leaders of the winter. #### TWENTY-THREE FIVE-YEAR-OLDS THAT HAVE WELL PAID THEIR WAY THIS YEAR

H. G. Bedwell's five-year-old gelding. Nadzu, achieved fame and earned a place in the annals of turf history when he recently won the rich and famous long-distance race of the California racing season, the Theraton Stakes. By virtue of this victory, Nadzu now holds the place of honor among the five-year-olds racing in California, twenty-three of which have, since the first of January to last Friday, inclusive, wor $1,000 or more each. Clamor, winner of the Waterhouse Cap, is second on the list, while Barney Schreiber's Animus and Jack Atkin are third and fourth respectively. Ethon, which is next on the list, has wear more races than any other five-year-old, seven in all, but his victories do not include any of the stake features. Light Wool, Montgomery and Vox Fourdi are also included in the list of five-year-old winners, the record of those carning $1,000 or more being here given:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE GEBHARD HANDICAP

With the running of the Gebhard Handicap at Oakland yesterday the last stake race of the California fockey Clab's winter season was decided. The largest field, numerically, and possibly the best, as far as the class of the contestants is concerned, in the history of this popular two-year-old feature of the coast cacing season, contested its twelfth running, and R. L. Thomas' high-class colt. Flying Squirrel, was returned the winner. This young son of Cesarion has proved himself a capital racer in his belef turf career, baving been defeated only once in eight starts, and will compare favorably with any one of the former winners of the Gebbard Handicap. The record of the race follows:

Judge Murphy has been asked to reserve 175 stalls at Houston by the horsemen racing here. #### MAKING THE THOROUGHBREDS POPULAR.

Making the thoroughbreds popular.

Moatreal. Que., April 3.—The Canadian National Bureau of Breeding will make a big showing at the Montreal Horse Show in May the tase exhibiting a lass, there will be a good representation in the open class and at least one entry in the class for thoroughbred stallions under four years old. The value of the bureau to horse shows, not only in Montreal, but all over Canada, can hardly be overestimated, for in a few years the good effects of the introduction of pure blood will be seen in the saddle carriage, hunter, general purpose and utility horses of this country. All this will surely add class to the different horse shows. The following is a list of the probable bureau entries in the Montreal show:

Thoroughbred stallions under four years old—Valjean, ch. c, 3, by George Kessler—Missy, by Midloithian.

Special class for bureau stallions three years old and upward, owned by the Canadian National Bureau of addie loss and united to develop a type of utility horse which shall be suitable for the Imperial Cavalty Reserve:

Masterman, ch. h., foaled 1890, by Hastings—Lady Margaret, by The Ill-Used.

Sea Horse II., ch. h., foaled 1896, by Nelson—Moonga, by Goldsborough.

Ostrich, b. h. foaled 1901, by Order—Plumage, by Goldmont, br. h. foaled 1904, by Bridgewater—The Ghost, by Flying Putchman.

Oraculum, b. h., foaled 1905, by Bridgewater—The Ghost, by Flying Putchman.

by Kosciusko.

Israfel, ch. h. 6, by Meddler—Geisha, by Iroquois, McIlvain, b. h. foaled 1902, by Bend Or—Sierra

All bureau stallions stationed in the Province of Quebec four years old and upward are eligible to connecte in the open class. The National Bureau will probably enter Sea Horse II., Rosemount, Masterman, Ostrich, Oraculum, Javlin and Our Boy in this class.

GOSSIP OF THE KENTUCKY REGION.

Lexington, Ky., April 3.—The sensation of the week at the local track was sprung by J. H. Nichols when he worked the two-year-old bay gelding by Frankfort—Jane Parks three-eighths of a mile in 36 seconds. Just before this trial Nichols had offered to wager 1 to 2 that he could show the three-eighths in as good as 36 and possibly 35½ seconds. This gelding was bred by John W. Coleman and was sold in the Fasig-Tipton Company's sale here last fall for $85 to George Bond. About three weeks sold in the Fasig-Tipton Company's sale here last fall for $85 to George Bond. About three weeks anne Parks, the dan of this gelding, is by Bersan, out of Satilla (dam of Lillian Belle, The Moor, Jack Wilson and Sample), by Buckden.

Another horse picked out of that sale last fall for a song that is going in the direction of ready money is the four-year-old bay colt, Sempro, by Sempronius—Lady Hoadley, by Dorian. Sempro was broken and handled by the late Frank Jones, who because of the speed he had shown as a yearling and as a two-year-old, believed he was going to turn out a world-beater. Sempro, however, developed a lameness that puzzled the old man much in his last days. George H. Whitney, to settle up Mr. Jones' estate, sold him to Charles J. Haggin for $70. He was limping at the time. After being turned out. Sempro's feet were trimmed and he was so plated that he would step wider in front. The lameness disappeared at once and there is no horse on the Kenticky. Association grands that is doing better thought of the property of the property of the polynomick of Malley's speedy mare, Gold Rose, Wilder last week put a price of $3.000, is alling. There are five foals at T. C. McDowell's Ashland Farm, Miss Gussie, the dam of Berwick, has a bay filly by Hastings. The speedy Monarka has a bay colt by Voter. #### DERBY CANDIDATES AT WORK.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—Two Derhy eligibles were worked Thursday, Sir Catesby, owned by T. P. Hayes, and Campeon, from the barn of George J. Long, and the work of both was of a character highly satisfactory to the owners. Sir Catesby went a mile at Douglas Park over a course two seconds slower than Churchili Downs in 1:435. He set his own pace and had weight up. It was an admirable trial and showed that this son of Sir Dixon is a real racer. This trial surpasses the work of all three swould say was that he had a fair sort of a contraction of the contractio

Hayes would say was that he had a fair sort of a coit.

Campeon, bard held, recled off a mile in 1:48. This colt looks fine.

Campeon and Sir Catesby did not furnish the only sensations yesterday. Marse Abc, one of L. A. Cella's crack colts, was so full of life that he ran off and had nearly everybody at Churchill Downs on tip-toe. —A stable hand had taken Marse Abe out to pick grass. A bunch of youngsters dashed by and he was off like a flash. He quickly passed the horses and then darted into a stable. Before he was caught he visited several other stables, He sustained no injury.

The racers of Mrs. M. Abadie, including the fast Dence, have arrived from New Orleans.

AH of W. H. Fizer's horses were worked at Churchill Dowas yesterday. McAndrews, his Derby colt, is a grand looker. In fact all of his racers show the effect of careful handling. Anne McGee has changed little from last season. She will soon be ready for the races.

FLYING SQUIRREL VICTOR.

RUNS A GREAT RACE AND WINS THE RICH GEBHARD HANDICAP.

Ten Thousand Spectators Out to View the Running of the California Jockey Club's Last Stake Race.

San Francisco, Cal., April 3.—The Gebbard Handlcap, the biggest and richest local stake for twoyear-olds, as well as the last of the senson's Pacific coast turf fixtures, was decided at Oakhand Sday in flavorities, and the senson of the senson's Pacific favorities, and the senson of the sens

persistently wearing the monas conclown at the end.

Star Blue, half-brother to Blues and Blue Girl, which ran a close fifth after getting away very badly, ran a sensational race and would probably have won with an equal start.

This was the last big racing day of the California season, and it will probably not see its like for many years to come. The card was worthy of the best traditions of the American turf, and the occasion was graced by an enormous crowd of people. The secondary features, the Harper and Duncan Handicaps, won respectively by Royal Tourist and Booger Red, engaged turf luminaries of great magnitude, and both features developed brilliant contests.

niltude, and both features developed brilliant contests.

Favorities and outsiders shared equally in the afternoon's prizes. Ross, with two wins, scored the most jockey successes. Hosnigh Gloss, Blakelev's diminuitive apprentice, aroused the greatest enthusiasm by his remarkable riding feat on Cowen in the fifth race.

Starter Jake Holtman announced that he had been engaged to do the starting at the coming Louisville, Lexington and Latonia meetings.

Joseph A. Murphy was wired during the afternoon an offer of the presiding judgeship on the Montana circuit by Harry Stover. Murphy can have the position unless President Thomas H. Williams interposes an objection. Cut down carby in the running of the last race. Keep Moving was also jumped upon in her last race and will be shelved in consequence.

Jockey Sandy, who was just returning to his best form after a long suspension; will be out of the saddle for some time with an injured foot.

Martin Nathanson will be secretary at Denver if the proposed thirty-day meeting materializes.

CHELSEA STABLE HORSES READY.

CHELSEA STABLE HORSES READY.

Washington, D. C., April 3.—The Chelsea Stable, in charge of trainer Preston Burch, is one of the stables at the Washington Jockey Club track which will be ready for the spring meeting at Pimlico. Trainer Burch has worked the horses consistently for the past two weeks and considerable progress in their condition is now noticeable.

Taboo, the speedy filly which raced so well last season, is rapidly rounding into form and, Judzing from her work during the past well. The Wrestler are also in good conditions and require little work to have them ready for racing.

The two-year-olds in the stable are also of a quality to give promise of something better than usefulness. Isendune, a colt by Islington—Miss Laudeman, is one of the best in the younger division. He recently worked a half hard held in 54 seconds, which was a really smart showing considering the condition of the going and the manner in which he accomplished the task. Phpo, another colt by gone Coon—Puillipa, went along with him. Another good one in the string is Scarpia, a brown son of Broomstick and Ida Ford. He has shown son of Broomstick and Ida Ford. He has shown and the colors early in the racing year. Little King, a handsome black son of Kingston and Eitle Fraud, has attracted attention.

Others in the juvenile division are Belle Mawr, a bay daughter of Bryn Mawr and Queen Belle; Lothario, a bay son of Orlando and Elopement: Swet Simplieity, a chestnut daughter of Ben Strome and Henrietta: The Prophet, a chestnut gelding by Islington—Castalla, and Zymole, a bay gelding jay Golden Maxim—Leveret.

Five Jumpers are also in the stable. Most of them are green ones, but they have been schooling brilliantly and ought to do well at the Pimlico meeting. In this end of the stable Beggarman. Cartwheel, Canwas, Recruit and Glorious Betsy are the ones.

TRACK TALK FROM THE BLUE GRASS.

TRACK TALK FROM THE BLUE GRASS.

Lexington, Ky., April 3.—Gold Dust is eliminated as a factor among Kentucky Derby possibilities. Trainer Lin Marders has had bim fired.

Ada Meade has shown the best move of any of the local candidates for the Kentucky Derby, having worked three-quarters yesterday in 1:184. Mlami and Dr. Barkley have each been three-quarters in 1:20.

There are now nearly 300 borses in training here. Lin Marders, who was getting ready for Pimlico, has written E. A. Breman, of Brooklyn, since the announcement of dates for meetings here and at Louisville, that he would prefer to remain in Kentucky. His horses are nearer ready than any hera and he believes it would be easier to win-here and at Louisville than at Pimlico. He sent Terah and Petulant a mile in 1:48 yesterday.

The Readth south.

Henry Ziegler's string of then, in charge of trainer Charles H. Hiughes, was shipped from Highland Farm to Churchill Downs today.

The latest foal at James R. Keene's Castleton Stud is a half-sister to Colin, a brown filly by Peter Pan—Pastorella.

J. C. Milam has sold Elvin, a two-year-old brown colt, by Migraine—Meddling Mary, to W. H. Snowden.

Dr. Bossler, of Bombay, India, today wired Frank Skinner at Oakland to get prices on Fulletta and Booger Red. He wants them for pony racing in India and has not been able to find just what he wants in this vicinity.

ENGLISH DEVOTION TO SPORTS.

The ratery of Mrs. M. Abadie, including the fast Deuce, have arrived from New Orleans.

AH of W. H. Fizer's horses were worked at Churchill Downs yesterday. McAndrews, his berby colt, is a grand looker. In fact all of his racers show the effect of careful handling. Anne McGehas. changed little from last season. She will soon be ready for the races.

ENGLISH IDEA OF BETTING ON RACES.

All things considered, if a man wants to speculate, the turft is about the best and safest medium he can choose, if, of course, he understands racing just a little. It is not gambling like roulette, a game in which knowledge and judgment have no part. Many people will not believe this, but you would be just as likely to win at Monte Carlo if you played with your eyes shut, and though luck has an enormous influence on all racing results, on the turf knowledge and judgment do frequently pay.—London Refere.

BOASBERG CASE ARGUED ON APPEAL.

District Attorney Adams argued that Boasberg is now a fugitive from justice, as his leave of absence has expired and therefore his appeal to the Supreme Court should be dismissed. Judge Robert H. Marr, leading counsel for Boasberg, argued that the bookmaker had never been convicted legally, as District Attorney Adams had no legal standing in the Jefferson court, He made a strong argument along this line and many believe he will win out over the drastic action of Governor Sudders argument along this line and many believe he will win out over the drastic action of Governor Sudders argument along this line and many believe he will win out over the drastic action of Governor Sudders are the calfornia track what the result.

ANOTHER BARGAIN AMERICAN 'CHASER.

"It has apparently escaped notice," says the London Sportsman, "that American-bred animals have within twelve anonths won both the Grand National and the National Hunt Steeplechase, Rather curiously both were sold out of J. B. Haggin's string of American-bred yearlings on the same afternoon at the second July sales of 1899, when Rubio (winner of the Grand National), by Star Ruby, out of La Toquera, fell to the bid of D. Pennant for $75, and Wychwood (winner of the National Hunt Steeplechase March 20 this year), by Sir Modred, out of Dixianne, was bought by the Newmarket trainer, G. Blackwell, for $700."

GROWING LIVELY AT LOUISVILLE.

Wintergreen's Fast Work at Memphis Makes Him Favorite for the Kentucky Derby.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—Wintergreen, a bay colt by Dick Welles—Winter, and owned by Rome Resposs, is, at this time, top choice in the future book on the Kentucky Derby, to be run May 3. Warfield, a chestnut colt, by Nasturtium—Detection, owned by W. J. Young, is second choice, and T. M. Green, and belonging to "Uncle Davy" Prewitt, is third choice. While Respess, Young and Prewitt are each hopeful that they will send to the post the winner of Kentucky's big race, there are, at present, twenty-two other owners who feel that they too, have more than a chance to win the race and the accompanying honor and glory. Hardly a day passes that a report of sensational work by some Derby eligible is not made known. Warfield had been accorded chief distinction in this connection until the watchers caught Wintergreen working a mile over the Montgomery-Park course in better time than that made by Warfield—134. He went the distance handily and was pulling up at the end, showing that it was possible for him to the end, showing that it was possible for him to the end, showing that it was possible for him to the end, showing that the had a coit of exceptional class in Wintergreen.

Respess, according to reports, was himself surprised over the performance, although he has contended all along that he had a coit of exceptional class in Wintergreen.

Respess' stable will arrive next Tuesday at Churchill Downs, Because of the superior condition of that course he will be able to train to better advantage and the chances are that Wintergreen will show more speed there for the reason that the effect that Young's Derby eligibles. Warfield and Direct, are training on in splendid style and that Warfield is able to cover a mile there in 1:43. Direct has not shown the speed of his stable companion, but Young has not by any means lost faith in the colt's ability to do much better. All of Young's horses will be at the Downs by next Tuesday, perhaps before.

By Fabulous—Mies Mickens, is a good looker, powerfully built and has worked a mile in 1:46.

From Lexington news comes that J. C. Milam's Ada Meade, which is eligible to both the Kentucky Association, has a betty eligible in Miani, by Counties to say that his filly may win the big race.

J. N. Camden, Jr., president of the Kentucky Association, has a betty eligible in Miani, by Counties in 1:072 without any exertion. This one seems to be improving right along.

One of the best stables to be raced at Churchill bowns is that owned by L. A. Cella, The l Toney Robinson, Lady Esther and Arrow Swift.

Trainer Hurley will have charge of the racers of
E. R. Bradley at Churchill Downs. He reports Bad
News to be in royal condition. He also has Black Mary and Blacksheep.
On Wednesday 100 youngsters were introduced to the starting machine and this will be the daily program until the meeting opens.
Jockey Arthur Pickens left Thursday night for San Antonio, Texas, where he will ride for O. G.
Thomas, the Texas ranch owner and millionaire,
Pickens rode Stone Street, the Kentucky Derby winner, last year.
W. H. Fizer's stable came in from Nashville in good condition. Fizer expects to win the Derby with McAndrews. The son of Scintillant II.—The Lady covered a mile at the Downs in 1:45.

PIMLICO STAKES FOR TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

The spring meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club at Pimlico is near at hand and all indications point to the most successful season in the history of that organization. Stable room is already at a premium, and such prominent horsemen as August Belmont, James R. Keene, R. T. Wilson, Jr., H. K. Knapp and many others who have never before raced at Pimlico, will fly their colors at the Baitimore track. The Maryland Jockey Club has issued its stake book for the season and it shows that no purse has a value less than $400 in added money, while the values of several stakes have been increased and many old features have been revived.

The Clabaugh Memorial and Pimlico Nursery are two of the stakes for two-year-olds that closed october 1 of last year, to which the following horses are eligible:

BLINKERS ON JUMPING HORSES.

"The use of blinkers on horses competing in steeplechases is not allowed in this country, and I can recall only three instances where an exception has been made," says a Canadian writer. "Both Frank Somers and Buffer were permitted to be thus equipped in races at Woodbine and Moongold at Hamilton. The opinion is held that in races over obstacles a horse has need of absolutely unrestricted vision, while the argument on the other side is that their use lessens the chances of bothing and minimizes the danger of consequent interference with the other horses. In France there appears to be no regulation on the point, and I saw horses wearing blinkers in every race at Auteuil one day last November, the program being exclusively for jumpers. In the Prix weeks Grand Vational clinner, the program being exclusively for jumpers. At Derby, England, Friday, D. Maher, the American jockey, rode Lord Durham's Miesko to win the Doverldge Handicap of $3.000. H. P. Whitney's Dellrium was unplaced in the race. The same stable's Scaeliff ran unplaced in a selling race the same day.

The New York story about Brighton Beach being again fitted up for racing seems most absurd. The association is clearly outside the racing pale and still owes horsemen some $53,000 in unpaid stakes and purses. Not the slightest effort to pay these has ever been made.

Among the two-year-olds in the stable of H. P. Whitney at Newmarket, England, in care of A. J. Joyner, the Broomstick—Belle of Troy filly is considered promising and is expected to develop into a good one. Mr. Whitney owns both her sire and her dam. He bought Broomstick, winner of the Brighton Handicap of 1904, and holder of the American record of 2:022 for one and one-quarter miles, and Belle of Troy at the dispersal sale of Captain W. Harry Brown's Senorita Stud last fall. They are now at Breokdale Farm in Monmouth County. New Jersey. When Broomstick won the Brighton Handicap he defeated Irish Lad, which was then owned
